CLEARLY DEFINED REPORT TRACKING

Managing organizational reporting needs can be a challenge, especially when you are converting to Expanse or any new system. Valuable report writing resources can spend time running down report owners to get answers. Are you ready to take control of your resources? Are you ready to make report owners responsible for needed data to complete reporting? Do you want to have a governance structure for the future that can help manage the workload and provide structure? DefinITY is your answer!

DefinITY helps organizations clearly define steps for report tracking and completion in an exceedingly hectic time. It also helps to set the stage for governance in the future.

DEFINITY can help

organizations:

- ❖ Create and maintain a centralized reporting database so your organization can efficiently manage data requests.
- ❖ Understand which reports are impacted by a system conversion that will require revisions or a rewrite.
- ❖ Assign report owners to have them take responsibility for their reporting needs based on new system developments for their area.
- ❖ Review with owners to see when and if a report needs to be developed. Assign
- ❖ report development to a certain resource with dates for completion.
- ❖ Govern future report development with an on-line process.

We can help you get reporting under control and you can cross it off your list.
